

Nature Crossword

Across:

1. any of a class of warm-blooded egg-laying vertebrate animals with the body covered with feathers and the forelimbs modified as wings.
2. degree of hotness or coldness
5. a brightly coloured insect with a long thin body and two sets of wings.
6. light from the sun
7. movement of air, especially in form of current
10. to flower

Down:

1. flying insect with a small body and large, often colorful wings
3. solid surface of earth
4. selected area where seeds are planted to grow
6. male part of flower
8. liquid that is essential to growth of plants
9. water that falls in drops from the sky